Description: Infinitely readable and absorbing, Bruce Catton's The Civil War is one of the most widely read general histories of the war available in a single volume. Introduced by the critically acclaimed Civil War historian James M. McPherson, The Civil War vividly traces one of the most moving chapters in American history, from the early division between the...

Review: Book Review Number Five: year 2017 The Civil War...soft cover edition. I've read all the big ones: The Battle Cry of Freedom, Grant's Memoirs, A Stillness at Appomattox, This Hallowed Ground, Lee's Lieutenants (abridged), Lee (abridged), Grant Takes Command and others. And then I read this relatively thin book, and quite frankly, I wish I had started...
